BEGINNER BOOKS

A Division of Random House, Inc.

This dictionary has a serious purpose.

There is nothing more serious than helping a child learn how to read.

But the Editors of Beginner Books, who put this dictionary together, decided they could be serious...and still avoid being stuffy.

So they made this book of words just as funny as they could make it.

It's full of ridiculous alligators, foolish bears and giraffes' uncles, all racing around and getting involved in nonsensical adventures.

The average child, we've discovered, seems to like things just that way. And that is fine. It helps us to focus the child's attention on the serious job we're trying to accomplish...to make him recognize, remember, and really enjoy a basic elementary vocabulary of 1350 words.

* * *

We offer you no rules on how to use this book with your children.

Maybe, the first time around, you'll want to read it to them.

The second time around, they may read some of it to you.

win

A cartoon illustration of a race between a grey rabbit and a green turtle. The rabbit is in the lead, running quickly with its long ears flapping. The turtle is following slowly behind it. The word "win" is written in the top left corner.

A cartoon illustration of a blue duck with a yellow beak, winking and smiling. Red motion lines are around its head.

A cartoon illustration of four women walking in a line from left to right. The first woman on the left has red hair, wears a yellow long-sleeved top and a grey skirt, and carries a green shopping bag. The second woman has red hair, wears a red short-sleeved top and a blue skirt, and carries a white shopping bag. The third woman has blonde hair, wears a green long-sleeved top and a green skirt, and carries a purple shopping bag. The fourth woman has black hair, wears an orange long-sleeved top and a grey skirt, and carries a pink shopping bag. All four women are wearing hats: the first has a red hat with a yellow flower, the second has a green hat, the third has a red hat with a pink flower, and the fourth has a black hat. They are all smiling and appear to be enjoying their shopping trip.

The Beginner Book story...

"Ten years ago, Dr. Seuss took 220 words, rhymed them, and turned out THE CAT IN THE HAT, a little volume of absurdity that worked like a karate chop on the weary little world of Dick, Jane and Spot." Ellen Goodman, The Detroit Free Press—November, 1966

From this magically right beginning has developed the concept of Beginner Books—an exacting blend of words and pictures that encourages the child to read by himself.

Elementary Educators all over the country have hailed Beginner Books as perfect supplementary readers for first, second and third grade children.

Remedial reading specialists have acclaimed Beginner Books as a stimulating aid to all children who have reading difficulties.

Is it any wonder that sales now total over 55 million? These books are used in schools and libraries in every country throughout the world where English is the basic language.

Among recent Beginner Book titles are: MY BOOK ABOUT ME, by Dr. Seuss and Roy McKie. THE CAT IN THE HAT SONGBOOK for Beginning Singers, by Dr. Seuss. THE BEARS' VACATION, by Stan and Jan Berenstain. Ian Fleming's CHITTY CHITTY BANG BANG, adapted by Al Perkins, illustrated by B. Tobey. KING MIDAS AND THE GOLDEN TOUCH by Al Perkins, illustrated by Harold Berson, and THE BEST NEST, by P. D. Eastman.

Beginner Books are also now available in French-English and Spanish-English.
