GRANDPAS

can do lots of things, like play hide-and-seek, help you build a sand castle, and sing you a lullaby. But what do they do best? The answer is made perfectly clear in this irresistible celebration of grandparents and the everyday things they do.

Laura Numeroff had her first children's book published at the same time that she graduated from college. She is well known as the author of IF YOU GIVE A MOUSE A COOKIE. Her other books include WHAT MOMMIES DO BEST/WHAT DADDIES DO BEST, SOMETIMES I WONDER IF POODLES LIKE NOODLES, and WHY A DISCUSE? She lives in Los Angeles, California.

Lynn Munsinger has illustrated more than eighty children's books. Some of her favorites are TACKY THE PENGUIN by Helen Lester, Bucs! by David T. Greenberg, and THE TALE OF CUSTARD THE DRAGON by Ogden Nash. She lives in Connecticut with two cairn terriers.

WHAT GRANDPAS
DO BEST

Grandpas can play hide-and-seek,

make you a hat,

and take you for a walk.

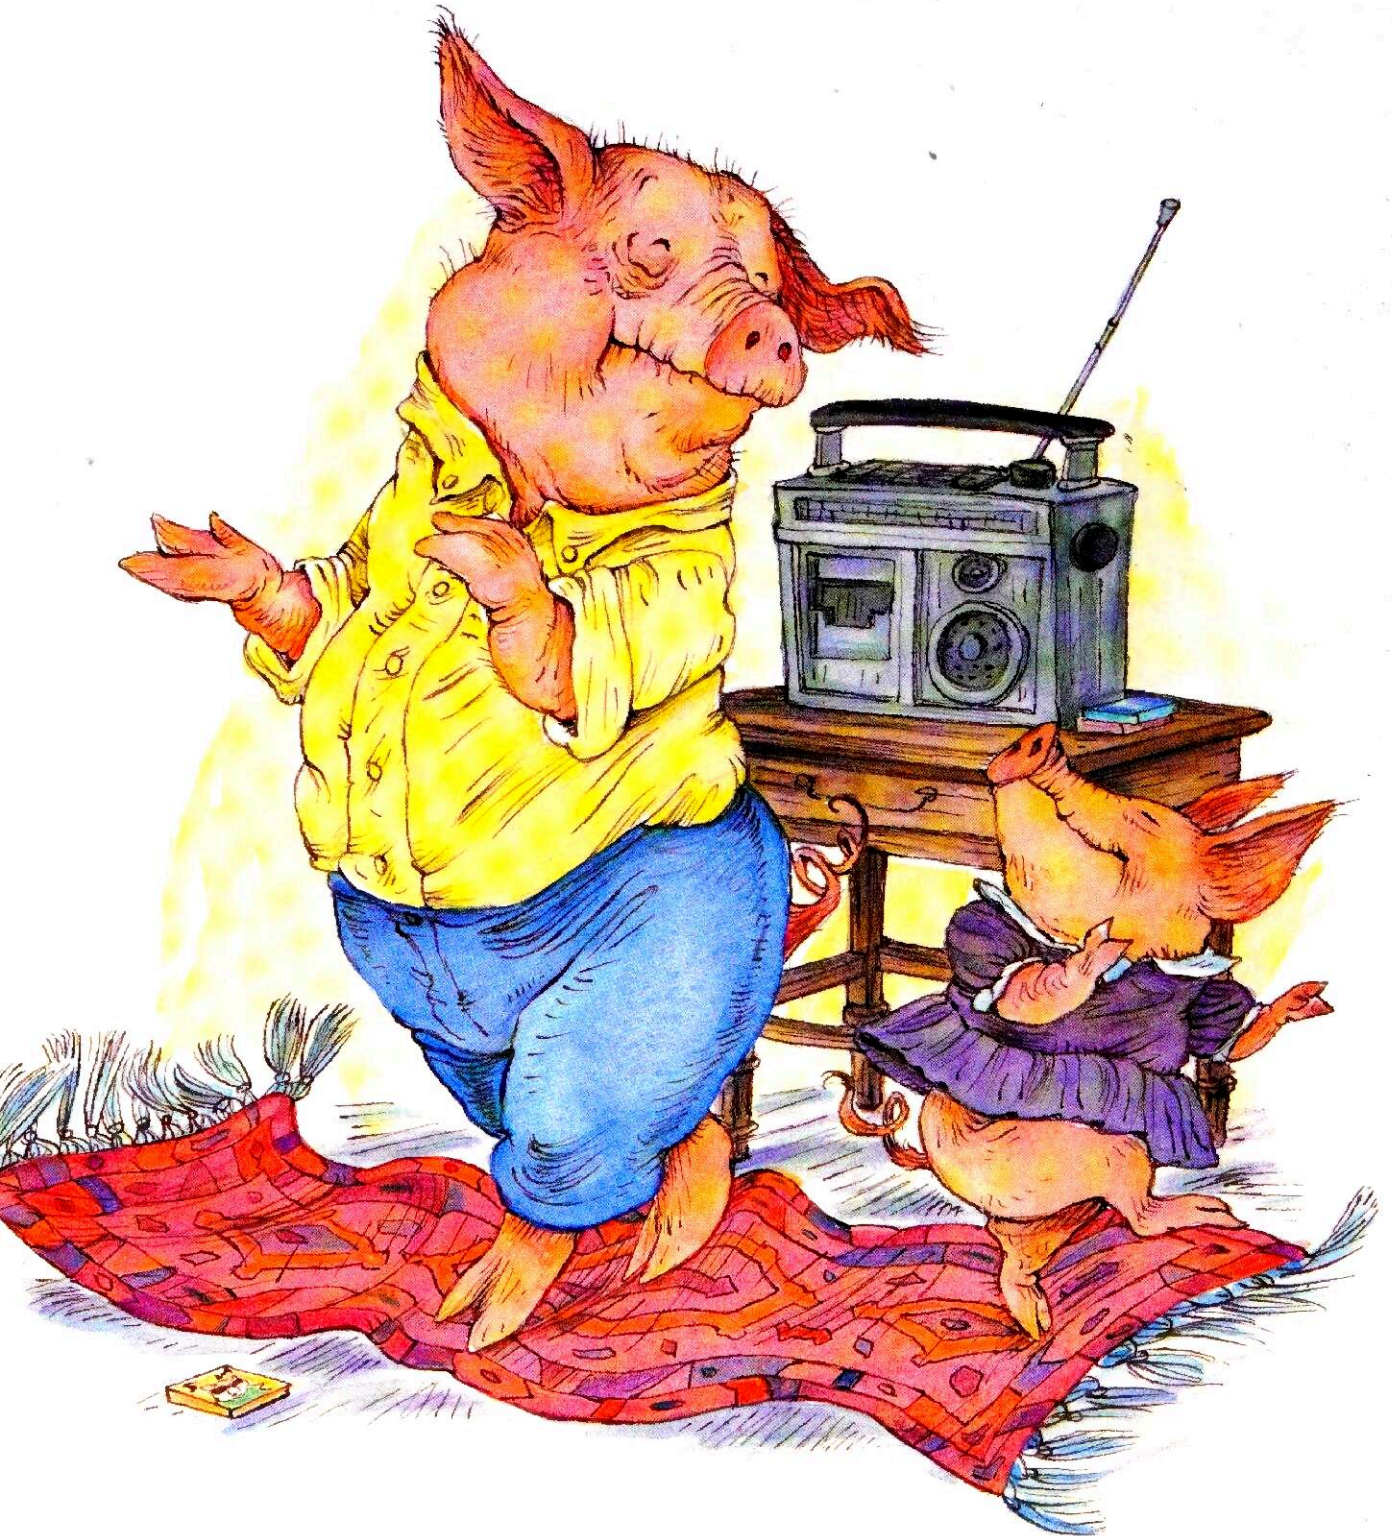

Grandpas can paint with you,

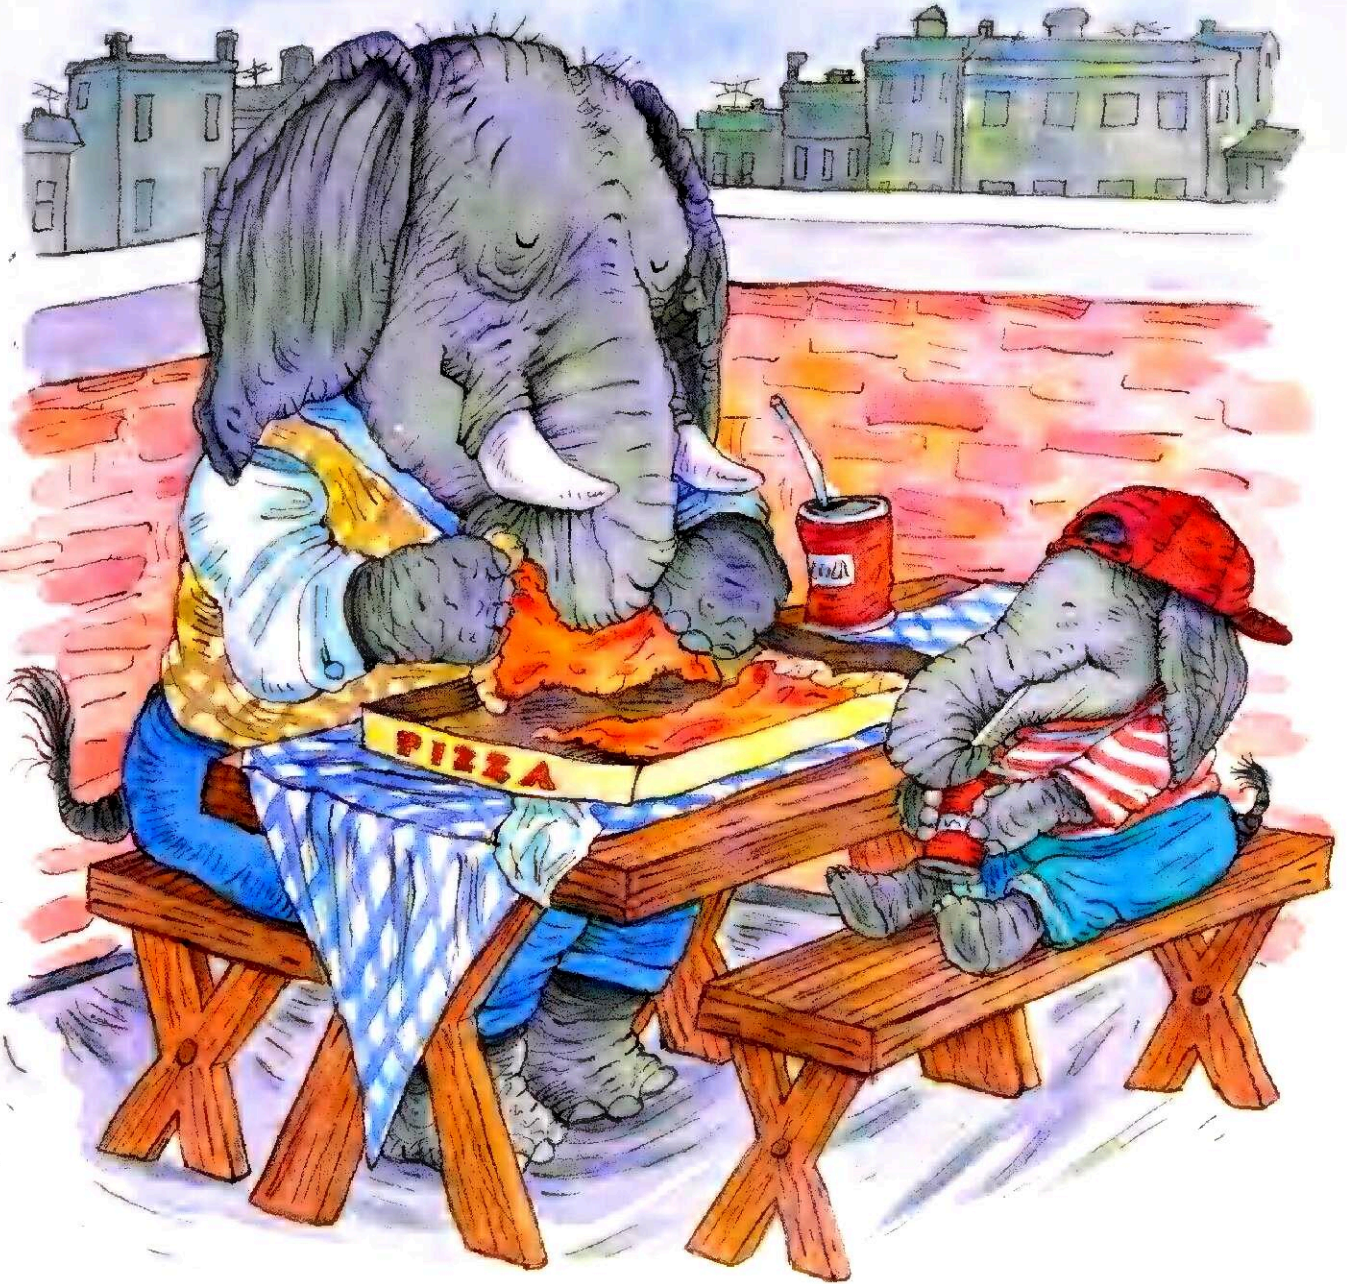

show you their photographs,

and teach you how to dance.

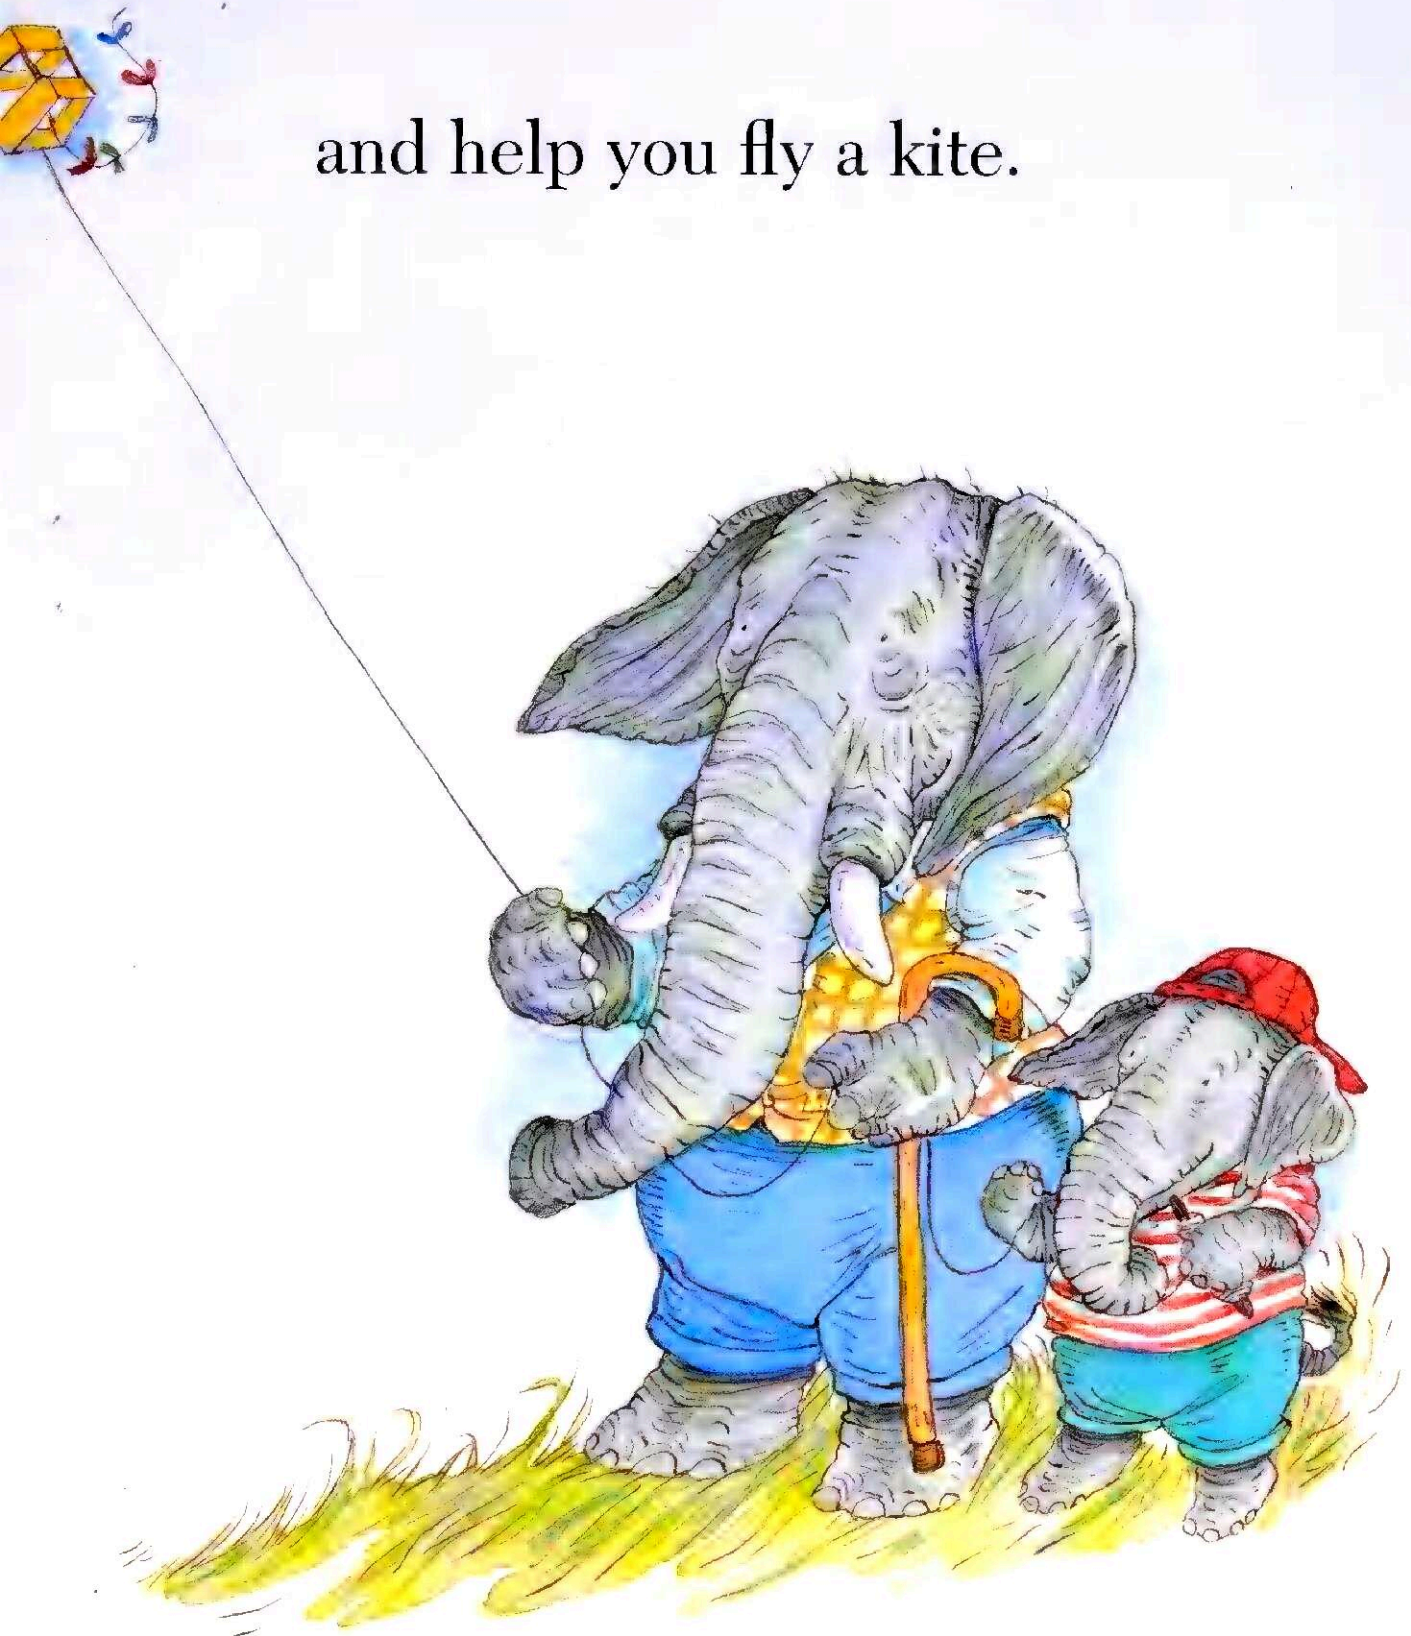

Grandpas can take you on a picnic,

show you some magic tricks,

and help you fly a kite.

Grandpas can take you to the beach,

help you build a sand castle,

and take a nap with you.

Grandpas can play games with you,

give you a bath,

and sing you a lullaby.

But best of all,
grandpas can give you
lots and lots of love.
